IDENTIFYING

JOB

Objectives

---

You have decided to move onwards and upwards. Well done! This programme is designed precisely for people like you, who take control of your own destiny.

You begin with a discovery session. Then, you will revisit and identify the objectives that really matter to you before ultimately choosing your path from the possibilities open to you and taking your first steps while being accompanied all the time.

POSSIBILITIES

MODULE 3

DEVELOPING YOUR TRADEMARK

04

MODULE 4

TAKING ACTION AND MOVING IN THE CHOSEN

---

---

Among your professional and personal experiences to date, it is important to identify the common levers for action and sources of motivation. G facilitates and supports your approach by selecting the tools from her “toolbox” that are best suited to your own unique situation. It is an opportunity to regain your core essence and your narrative in a happy and benevolent environment.

---

This is when you will confront the convictions holding you and dare to express your dearest wishes. This means examining what you believe have been obstacles to your success; revisiting certain contexts which have underpinned your choices and actions; identifying what inspires and touches you. Regardless of the ultimate goal, these elements are at the very heart of the approach leading you to your status as “competence provider”.

---

Dare to find the words that define what makes a person unique. Skipping this stage would mean preventing yourself from seeing and recognising the situations and to position yourself on a constantly changing labour market. It is a question of identifying your next jobs and the associated requirements. To do so, you must revisit your profile while remaining true to yourself and growing into this “new suit”. This means improving how you talk about yourself.

Act as a “competence provider”. Experiment with new reflexes in the field, overcome discouraging moments and readjust if necessary. Prepare yourself and ensure that preparation for interviews becomes systematic along with other key steps on the road to your chosen goal. Make use of your character traits, move forward with the world of possibilities and the desired position clearly in sight.

I assist companies, executives and managers in visualising a desired future and creating the conditions underpinning its achievement. I focus on the company's strategic framework, internal culture and leadership (at every level). In a company, I pay particular attention to the internal culture, which will either facilitate or prevent change. I give the person the means of unlocking the world of possibilities, identifying the critical points and preparing for pivotal conversations and conferences. I encourage everyone to choose their own life path and to follow it. For more than 20 years, I have offered a sympathetic ear and provided advice and accompaniment in complete confidence, both locally and abroad in companies and within my own facilities.
